- Not Held. The court denies the request without a hearing.

(Complete the Findings section below.)

3. Findings.

- A. Non-Appearance. Petitioner Respondent did not appear.

Temporary Order Findings

- B. No Basis. Do not schedule hearing. The Petition for Protection Order does not list a specific incident and approximate date of behavior that would support a domestic violence, stalking, antharassment, sexual assault, or vulnerable adult protection order as defined in RCW 7.105.100. The protected person should have 14 days to amend their petition before dismissal.
- Request for Dismissal after Temporary Order denied. The Protected Person requested dismissal of petition. Do not schedule for full hearing and do not serve the restrained person. (Check "dismissed" in caption above, and check "service not required" in section 5.)
- C. Notice Required. Schedule for full hearing. The Protected Person has not shown that there is a sufficient basis to enter a temporary order without notice to the opposing party vulnerable adult.
- The court will grant or deny the protection order after a hearing with notice.

Final Order Findings

- D. Request. The Protected Person requested dismissal of petition.
- E. Service Unsuccessful or Impossible. All available methods of service have been attempted unsuccessfully or are not possible.
- F. Insufficient Evidence. A preponderance of the evidence does not support issuing any type of protection order that this court has authority to issue.

- G. Insufficient Evidence (Vulnerable Adult Contests). Clear, cogent, and convincing evidence has not established that there is abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult. (When a vulnerable adult protection order is contested by the vulnerable adult.)

- H. Evidence. Protected Person Restrained Person supports their account of events with the following evidence (specify):

- I. Realignment. (DV or Harassment only) The original "Protected Person" is the abuser or harasser, and the original "Restrained Person" is the victim of domestic violence or unlawful harassment. The parties should be switched.

Renewal Findings

- J. The Restrained Person proved by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a substantial change in circumstances (describe):

_____ and the Restrained Person will not:

- (for DV orders) resume acts of domestic violence against the Protected Person or the Protected Person's children or household members who are minors or vulnerable adults when the protection order expires.
- (for sexual assault orders) engage in, or attempt to engage in, physical or nonphysical contact with the Protected Person when the order expires.
- (for stalking orders) resume acts of stalking against the Protected Person or the Protected Person's family or household members when the order expires.
- (for anti-harassment orders) resume harassment of the Protected Person when the order expires.

(for vulnerable adult orders) resume acts of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect against the vulnerable adult when the order expires.

K. Late Filing. The Protected Person did not file for renewal before the order expired.

Modify or Terminate Findings

L. Protected Person's motion to modify or terminate a protection order is denied because:

M. Restrained Person's motion to modify or terminate a protection order is denied because:

Repeat Filing. The court finds that the Restrained Person has previously filed a motion to modify or terminate during the current 12-month period following entry of the order and is not eligible for the relief requested.

No Adequate Cause. The Restrained Person did not establish adequate cause to modify or terminate. No hearing is necessary.

Insufficient Evidence. A preponderance of the evidence failed to establish that there has been a substantial change in circumstances such that if the order is terminated or modified the Restrained Person will not resume, engage in, or attempt to engage in acts of:

domestic violence.

physical or nonphysical contact (for sexual assault protection orders).

stalking.

unlawful harassment.

No Substantial Change. Since the protection order was entered, there has not been a substantial change in circumstances (describe):

(Check all that apply)

- The Restrained Person has committed or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other harmful acts against the Protected Person/s.
- The Restrained Person has violated the terms of the protection order.
- The Restrained Person has exhibited suicidal ideation or attempts.
- The Restrained Person has been convicted of criminal activity.
- The Restrained Person has:
 - Not acknowledged responsibility for the acts of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, or behavior that resulted in entry of the protection order, and
 - Not successfully completed perpetrator treatment or counseling.
- The Restrained Person has continued to abuse drugs or alcohol (if this was a factor in the protection order).
- The Protected Person has not voluntarily and knowingly consented to terminating the protection order.
- Other:

- Severe Acts. The Restrained Person proved that there has been a substantial change of circumstances; however, the court declines to terminate the protection order because the acts of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, unlawful harassment, and other harmful acts that resulted in the issuance of the protection order were of such severity that the order should not be terminated.

General Findings

N. Other:

4. Order

- Petition denied without a full hearing. 14 days to amend before dismissal. The petition does not contain allegations that could support issuing any type of protection order. The person who filed the petition has 14 days to file an amended petition. If an amended petition is not filed within 14 days, the case may be dismissed.

Temporary Order

- Temporary Order Denied. Full hearing to be held. The request for a temporary order is denied. The court will approve or deny the protection order after a full hearing with notice. The hearing date and time is shown on page 1.

Warning to Restrained Person! Failure to appear at the hearing may result in the court granting all of the relief requested in the petition. See How to Attend at the end of this order.

- Dismissed by request without prejudice. (Check ORDSM (dismissed) above.)

Final Order

- Dismissed without prejudice because (check one):
- Protected Person asked to terminate the order or did not appear at the hearing.
 - All available methods of service have been attempted unsuccessfully or are not possible. Dismissal is over Protected Person's objection.

Any previously-entered temporary order and any Order to Surrender Weapons under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____.

- Denied on the merits after a hearing. The request for a full order is denied. Any previously-entered temporary order under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____.
- (Check one (see RCW 7.105.362)):
- No Order to Surrender Weapons was issued under this case number. The case is dismissed.
 - The court issues an Order Extending Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons (WS 400) extending the Order to Prohibit and Surrender Weapons until after the deadline for filing a motion for reconsideration or revision has passed and any timely filed motion has been resolved.
 - Any previously-entered Order to Surrender Weapons under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____ and the case is dismissed. It would be manifestly unjust to allow the order to remain in effect for the reconsideration or revision period because (check all that apply):
 - The Temporary Protection Order was entirely without merit.
 - Petitioner was engaged in abusive use of litigation.

- Petitioner was exerting coercive control over the Restrained Person.
- Other reason (explain why it would be manifestly unjust):

Denied. The deadline for filing a motion for reconsideration or revision has passed. The Protected Person has either failed to file a motion or the motion has been denied. The Order Extending the Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons (WS 400) is terminated and the case is dismissed.

Petition denied and dismissed without a full hearing.

No amended petition was filed within 14 days after denial.

Amended petition filed but still insufficient to set for full hearing.

Realignment (for domestic violence and harassment cases only). The parties are switched so that the original Protected Person is now restrained and the original Restrained Person is now protected.

The court will issue a new Temporary Protection Order so that:

The Protected Person is: _____

The Restrained Person is: _____

Important! The new Protected Person must file a Petition for Protection Order, form PO 001, if they want protection to last beyond the temporary order.

Modification, Termination, or Renewal (check ORDYMT (motion denied) in caption)

The request to modify, terminate, or renew the order dated _____ is denied.

Weapons

The request for an Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons is denied.

If any firearms or dangerous weapons have been surrendered under this cause number, they shall be released to the Restrained Person, absent some other legal reason that may exist prohibiting the Restrained Person from possessing them.

Other

Petition for Protection Order

Description of Events

February 13th, 2026

I, Brittany Foxley was first contacted by Paul Szewczyk on Saturday, February 7th at 1:49pm. Szewczyk called my personal cell phone. I did not recognize the number, so I let it go to voicemail. He said "Hey, this is Paul one of your neighbors. Uh I'm your neighbor across the street. Uh give me a call. We got a problem down this street from your house. Uh, I just want to give you a heads up what's going on down there so you're aware of it. Uh, give me a call 206-604-4461. Um, so check your cameras, probably see the uh police are in front of your house. So uhm ok, uh give me a call back. Appreciate it, bye." I was very confused as I had never met Szewczyk, nor shared my contact information with Szewczyk or anyone else in the neighborhood. He also called my housemate Jessi, Jessica Wasson, a few minutes earlier and left a similar voicemail. Wasson called Szewczyk back, but he did not answer. Wasson did not give her personal cell phone to Szewczyk either. Jessi and I were home and looked outside to see if we could see anything of concern. I saw a police officer with a man (who I learned was Szewczyk) standing at the corner of my property. Wasson and I went outside to find out what was going on.

The police officer informed us that squatters had moved into the abandoned house and shed down and across the street from our home, at 4822 S 138th Street. Szewczyk expressed deep concern and frustration that more was not being done to remove the squatters. Szewczyk shared that a similar situation happened years ago and it was extremely challenging to remove the squatters. The officer explained that there was nothing the police could do until the police confirmed from the owner of the house that the squatters were indeed unwelcome at the house. The officer repeated himself several times to Szewczyk about the action taken thus far, the plan, and why more could not be done at the moment. The police officer told us to call 911 if the squatters came back. The officer left. Jessi Wasson, Szewczyk, and I continued to chat for a few minutes after the officer left. Wasson and I were trying to be friendly neighbors and just get to know Szewczyk, but something definitely felt off about Szewczyk. He stated he knew when we moved in and let us know he had cameras mounted outside his house and insinuated he could see our home.

A few hours later on, Feb 7 at 4:15pm, Szewczyk called Wasson again and left the following voicemail: "Hey, I just got a hold of the owner. The old man passed away a couple years ago so that's why his number didn't work. And just so you know, those people are not authorized to be there. They have broken into the house and they need to be out of there. So I'm just letting you know that if you see them, call the police. I have the owner's permission to get them out of there so we'll see how this goes. Talk to you later, bye."

On Feb 7 at 6:25pm, Szewczyk created a group text to Wasson and myself, and continued to message us. See attached document "Szewczyk text 1_2.7.26." Wasson and I felt very uneasy regarding his messages but tried to remain focused on the squatter situation.

We have 3 security cameras plus a video doorbell outside directed at our property and would call the non-emergency line or 911, as requested, whenever we saw what appeared to be the squatters. On the evening of Feb 10, the squatters returned and the police were able to speak to 3 males and apprehended one of them.

On Wednesday, Feb 11, Szewczyk texted photos of a person pulling suitcases and headed towards 4822 S 138th Street and asked us to contact the police. See "Szewczyk text 2_2.11.26" and "Szewczyk text 3_2.11.26." Wasson and I texted back that we had been in daily contact with police and that the police were planning on checking on the situation regularly.

Later that day, Szewczyk texted again to ask if we would attend a neighborhood bbq, see "Szewczyk text 3_2.11.26." I responded and politely declined the invitation, but he continued to engage in an extremely threatening, coercive, and aggressive manner. See "Szewczyk text 3_2.11.26" and "Szewczyk text 4_2.11.26." At this point, Wasson and I felt very unsafe and vulnerable. We were unsure of how far he would escalate. Therefore, we went to the police station to file a report. We did not feel comfortable having officers come to our house because we know that Szewczyk has cameras pointed at our house and we did not want Szewczyk to know that we were talking to the police.

We arrived at the Tukwila police station on Feb 11 at 8:30pm and spoke with Officer Vardishvili who filed our case #26TP00740. Officer Vardishvili told us that he would go speak to Szewczyk and let us know how that conversation went. Officer Vardishvili went to Szewczyk's residence around 9:30pm. Shortly after, at 10:36pm, Szewczyk texted us "Ok.

Now what? Restraining order.” We felt very nervous and uncomfortable in our home and when taking our 5 month old puppy outside. We decided to leave town on Feb 12.

Once we arrived at our destination, we were able to connect with Officer Vardishvili about his interaction with Szewczyk. Vardishvili described Szewczyk's behavior as hostile and escalating further without regard for boundaries. Vardishvili stated that he did not believe that Szewczyk would stop and that he does not respect authority. Vardishvili also said that Szewczyk was crazy and likely intoxicated and recommended that we file an anti-harassment protection order immediately.

I'm not sure why you do not understand how dangerous this situation is. I lived here while the gangs live at the end of your driveway. It was scary. You did not answer your door when I Knocked.

I'll work on it to keep you safe. Some one needs to step up.

Narratives

Original Narrative

02/11/2026 22:15:03

On February 11th, 2026, I Officer Vardishvili #282 employed by Tukwila Police Department was operating under 3T1. At approximately 2045 hours I was dispatched to 15005 Tukwila International Blvd location for a verbal harassment report call.

At approximately 2051 hours, I arrived at the Police station and spoke with the both reporting parties, later identified as Brittany Foxley DOB(12/29/1975) and Jessica Wasson DOB (06/06/1984).

Brittany advised me that she had been residing with Jessica at 13806 Macadam Rd S location and they were in a romantic relationship. Per Brittany, their neighbor, Paul Szewczyk DOB (03/06/1969) sent her an insulting text messages. Per Brittany, the verbal argument was about "squatters" in a nearby home. Per Brittany, Paul was blaming her and her partner Jessica "allowing squatters" to stay in an unoccupied nearby home. Brittany stated that Paul was "big Trump supported" and they might have been a reason he had some biases towards them.

Brittany provided me with the text messages and I captured them for the evidence. I advised Brittany and Jessica of anti harassment order option. Brittany stated that she did not feel comfortable with Paul texting her or talking to her. I observed Paul texting Brittany "fuck you".

I advised Brittany that I will be contacting Paul. After I provided Brittany and Jessica with the case number myself and Officer Chavez contacted Paul at 13749 Macadam Rd S.

Paul was intoxicated and verbally aggressive towards us. He stated that :we should be taking care of the squatters and not come there to threaten him". I advised Paul that Brittany and Jessica did not feel comfortable with getting messages from him on which he responded "fuck you!". Paul was rambling about an unknown issues and we decided to disengage with him for everyone's safety. No threats were made by Paul.

We left the location due to the priority call. Paul also stated that maybe it was a time "to escalate the situation" instead of de-escalating.

2. Other people with a legal right to spend time with the children

Do you know of anyone besides yourself and Respondent who has or claims to have a legal right to spend time with the children?

No.

Yes. (Name/s) _____ has or claims to have a legal right to spend time with the children because: _____

3. Authority Over the Children (Jurisdiction) (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

The court can make an order protecting the children because:

- Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children and the court still has authority to make other orders for the children.
- Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the child's home state because (check all that apply):
- The children lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if a child is less than 6 months old, the child has lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
 - There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if a child is less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
 - The children do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
 - The children do not have another home state.
- No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for the children or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:
- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
 - There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.
- Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be the children's home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
- Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for the children because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or their parent, brother, or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):
- A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____, Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).
 - There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.
- Other reason (specify): _____

Attachment D: Non-Parents Protecting Children (ICWA)

Only complete this attachment if you are asking to protect any children who are not your own. If not, skip or remove this attachment.

Non-Parents must comply with the Indian Child Welfare Acts (ICWA). If you are not a legal parent of a minor child you are asking to protect, you must find out if the minor is or may be an Indian child. If so, the federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts will apply to your case. This does not apply to parents.

Parents: You do not have to answer these questions about your own children.

1. Tribal Heritage

If there is a reason to know that a child has tribal heritage (including ancestry or familial political affiliation), the court must treat the child as an Indian child unless and until the affected tribe/s decide otherwise or decline to respond after receiving proper notice.

An Indian child is a child who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is the biological child of an Indian tribe member and is eligible for membership. Tribes decide their own membership.

Could any of the children be Indian children? (Check all that apply):

No. These children are not Indian children (name/s): _____

I know this because (explain if the children have no tribal heritage, or if any possible tribal heritage has already been explored and decided in another court proceeding that complied with ICWA. Attach orders): _____

Yes or maybe. These children are or may be Indian children. They have or may have heritage from the tribe/s listed below:

Children	Tribes

<input type="checkbox"/> All <input type="checkbox"/> (name/s):

I will provide the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice (form GDN M 401) and a copy of this Petition to the tribe/s named above and other necessary people or agencies.

I do not know if any of the children are Indian children or have tribal heritage. I have done the following things to find out:

Warning! You must find out if any of these children have tribal ancestry before a full order is issued.

2. Authority Over Indian Children (Jurisdiction)

- Does not apply. None of the children are Indian children.
- A state court can decide this case for any children who are or may be Indian children because:
- (Children's Initials): _____ are not domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and are not wards of a tribal court. (25 U.S.C. § 1911)
 - (Children's Initials): _____ are domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and (check all that apply):
 - The children's tribe agrees to Washington State's concurrent jurisdiction.
 - The children's tribe decided not to use its exclusive jurisdiction (expressly declined). (RCW 13.38.060)
 - Washington State should exercise emergency jurisdiction for Indian children temporarily located off the reservation to protect the children from immediate physical damage or harm. (RCW 13.38.140)
